We have added to our periodic Newsletter advice to share with our Attendees from our advisors.
Dan Lund, daniel.lund@phelps.com, a regular of our Mock Trial presentations, offers several for this series..
Dan is a 36+ year attorney at Phelps Dunbar, practicing in construction law and complex litigation, and serving as both an arbitrator and mediator. Dan represents clients in a variety of construction-related matters, from contract negotiation and drafting through the conclusion of a project, including, as required, project claims. For the years 2023-2025, Dan has been acknowledged by Super Lawyers as a top 50 attorney in Louisiana across all practices in the state.
For April, Dan offered advice to the primary “client” of many of our Attendees, the Construction Superintendents, with Building on Solid Ground: Navigating Legal Compliance in Construction, to stress fostering a culture of compliance with law.
For May, Dan posted Understanding Sarbanes Oxley in Construction, with FRED's WE guard the Truth of Financial Data.
For June, Dan has added Navigating OSHA Regulations, noting our role in protecting the lives of our construction staff.
For July, Dan discusses Breaking Up of a Joint Venture, dovetailed to FRED's recommendations to a Design-Build partnership.
For August, Dan discusses Waiver and Notice in Contracts. Read what FRED has to say about Waiver HERE.
